

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160 and support XM's ability to provide the user supported services which have the right to compete with existing providers.